La Tempete Golf Club

Levis, Quebec

Translated from French, "The Storm" offers a most stunning golf experience. Players will enjoy La Tempete's tricky ponds and sand, and will also experience what many consider the most beautiful par-5 in Quebec. But be forewarned - play La Tempete's down-sloped fairways carefully. With a little wind, they become much trickier than they seem!

Oakmont

Plum, Pennsylvania

Introduced in 1903 by designer Henry Fownes, Oakmont Country Club has hosted more major Championships than any other course in the U.S., including eight United States Opens, five U.S. Amateurs, three PGA Championships, and two U.S. Women's Open. Perhaps the most difficult course in North America, Oakmont features 210 deep bunkers (personified by the Church Pews), hard and slick greens that slope away from the player, and tight fairways requiring the utmost precision.

Saxe Gotha

Set in Germany

Saxe Gotha is a fantasy course set against a stunning German mountain backdrop. Rolling fairways are flanked by colorful trees and a meandering river forces players of all skill levels to bring out every club in their bag. Saxe Gotha is a test for the skills and a treat for the eyes, culminating in a finish at the foot of a towering gothic-era castle.

Scorecard

Spring City Lower Course

Kunming, China

A short drive from bustling Kunming, China, the Spring City Lower Course is as much a feast for the eyes as it is a test of skill. Narrow fairways, crisscrossing trenches, and green terraces are all part of the terrain that make this course as challenging as it is gorgeous. When the shots require extra contemplation, players can stop and enjoy views of Yang Zonghai Lake.
